On 23 November 1948 Senator Francisco "Paco" Prio asserted that his brother, President Carlos Prio Socarras, is not interested in helping the Central American revolutionists, although he will provide asylum for exiles. The possibility exists that in the future Prio will provide some small assistance; however, this aid will not compare with the large sums of money made available to the Dominican revolutionaries by Senator Jose Manuel Aleman during the summer of 1947.
